

Russian , East European & Central Asian Studies

Number 6 2023

Marxism Column

- (1) A New Model for Human Progress and Major Country Diplomacy with Chinese Characteristics ; Ideological Sources and Practical Paths
Xue Li and Miao Beilei

Feature

- (20) The Regularities of Periodical Transformation of the Global Economic Leaders and Its Impact on the World Structure
Sergey Glazyev

Topic Discussion : The 10th Anniversary of “the Belt and Road” and Construction of International Transport Corridors

- (35) The Governance Mechanism of the China – Europe Freight Trains and Its Demonstration Significance for the Construction of “the Belt and Road”
Ma Bin
- (48) Exploration of a New Path for High Quality Development of China – Europe Freight Trains : An Analysis Based on Logistics Performance Index and Trade Volume
Liu Huaqin
- (60) Reconstruction of International Logistics Corridors of Russia under Geopolitical and Economic Crisis
Li Xikui

Monographic Studies

- (78) Status Signals and International Conflicts ; A Study Based on the Russia – Ukraine Conflict
Zheng Lili and Wang Jinguo
- (95) Interest Balance and Role Transformation ; Japan ’ s Diplomacy towards Russia from the Perspective of the Japan – US Alliance
Chen Mengli
- (115) Ukraine Crisis and Strategic Confrontation between Russia and NATO in the Black Sea
Jiao Yiqiang and Zhu Yan

Fundamental Researches

- (137) The Central Asian Perspective of 18th Century Russia ; Peter I Period ’ s Geographical Survey of Central Asia and Its Significance
Jing Ruge

(155) SUMMARIES

(160) GENERAL CONTENTS